PRESIDENT: Senator Lynch.

SENATOR LYNCH: Mr. Chairman, I know that Senator Hoagland doesn't want to delay it, but we are delaying it. We can add these amendments on Select File if we can get the bill moved today. Secondly, I am not sure if I would want to turn over a responsibility like this to a committee of lawyers or anybody else. I think there is vehicles within the law, I am not a lawyer, but there has to be. Lawyers have been arguing with each other for how long working out the details. And in this particular bill for some reason we want to work out all the details. I think it is a delaying tactic. I don't think we should seriously consider this amendment. Was this amendment printed in the Journal, by the way? I guess I am at the point, Mr. Chairman, where I see senators sitting down here writing amendments and sending them up to the floor, as far as I am concerned I am just about in the mood where I don't think I will vote for any amendments unless they are in the Journal, we all have a chance to look at them and understand them, anymore at all. We play games on the floor. We think of something new every time somebody raises an argument and we send up an amendment. As far as I am concerned, too, Mr. Chairman, if there are ten members gone from the floor, we probably should call the day off. I am not sure we have enough votes here to make this bill move, but it makes little sense for a majority of us to be sitting here and trying to get work done and there is that many gone. I would simply like to suggest that we should not move this amendment, not support this amendment.

PRESIDENT: Senator DeCamp, do you wish to speak on this amendment?

SENATOR DECAMP: Question.

PRESIDENT: Okay, I don't think there are any other lights. Senator Hoagland, do you wish to close? The motion is the adoption of the Hoagland amendment to the committee amendment. All those in favor vote aye, opposed vote nay.
